can be drafted for keerganti work, I have the honor to note in the margin the extent and revenue of lands irrigated by the tank in question as well as the names of villages contributing to the cultivation

2. As to the question whether none of the servants in those villages can be drafted for the keerganti work, it is reported that there are no servants in the villages of Vuduvalli and Somerahalli and the only servant available in the village of Hulagalakunte cannot be spared, as he has to attend to other Government duties connected with the village, and besides he is ignorant of keerganti work. It is also reported that near one of the ryots of ~ Vuduvalli village, viz, Ambaliga has been performing the keerganti work and that the villagers agree to his appointment.

3 The tank is stated to be capable of irrigating about 700⁺ acres of land. The proper distribution of water over this wide area requires the services of a keerganti.

of which only 213 are now

stances, I beg to solicit ~ sanction for the entertainment of a keerganti on a
